IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Wai-Sim Cheung, Esquire

CHARGE:

Notice: Sec. 212(a)(6)(A)(i), I&N Act [8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(6)(A)(i)] -
Present without being admitted or paroled

APPLICATION: Withholding of removal

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. This case was last before us on October 22, 2002, when we summarily affirmed, without opinion, the results of the Immigration Judge's decision denying the respondent's applications for asylum and withholding of removal, and his request for protection under the Convention Against Torture. The matter is now before us pursuant to the (b) (6) decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The court found that it was without jurisdiction to consider the Immigration Judge's finding that the respondent's asylum application was time-barred. The court did review the withholding of removal claim.

The court found significant inconsistencies in the respondent's case. However, it also found several "troubling" aspects of the Immigration Judge's adverse credibility finding, as it related to the most critical issue in the case, the respondent's alleged forced sterilization. It concluded that, "we cannot be confident that the agency would reach the same result on remand," absent the Immigration Judge's errors, and so it remanded the case. In view of the court's ruling, and considering that over 6 years have passed since the last hearing in this case, we find that a remand to the Immigration Judge is necessary. Accordingly, the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings consistent with the court's decision.
